WORLD NEWS IN PICTURES

TWO LIGHTHOUSE KEEPERS RESCUED—Safely at home, Raymond Hughes, 31, found warm welcome from his wife and son, Randy, 12 months, after he and companion spent three days and three nights on island in Lake Huron, with two feet of snow on the ground. Other men...

towing lighthouse keeper stranded on small island when boat overturned. Flooded by plane, was Robert Leeson, seen with wife and two children at their home.—S.N.S. photo.

ABOUT TO START THEIR LONG JOURNEY to Toronto then grain-fed cattle were the first to be shipped from Lethbridge, Alta., this winter. Bred by Herman Linder, Cardston, and fattened in Ellison Milling and Elevator Co., Lethbridge, feedlots on Alberta, sugar beet tops and head pulp the 44 Herefords and Shorthorn steers averaged over 1,200 lbs. and brought $150 a head.

USES TOY PISTOL IN HOLD-UP—When Max Palmerston, 36, of St. Thomas brandished a gun and escaped with 22 $1 bills in her husband's store at Aylmer, Ont., Mrs. Hugh Shaw raced to the police to sound the alarm. At the same time the thief, trying to escape from town, headed straight for the back door of the police station by mistake. Constable Roy Johnson made a flying tackle at the man and brought him inside. Gun was later found to be a toy pistol like the one held above by Mrs. Shaw and daughter.—S.N.S. photo.

CARRY IS SLAIN—San Deitrich, 67-year-old Montreal caddy who recently fought to the death against street attackers, sincerely aided the fellow Yugoslavs escaping to Canada since the war. All who came to him for help were former Chetniks, loyal to King Peter, whose leader, General Drago Mihailovich, was executed by Tito's Communist army.

COMMUNITY AUCTION SALES—Sales such as this have been common in southern Alberta in recent months as the Community Auction Sales Association Limited sponsored a series of 40 beef cattle sales and enjoyed the most successful year in its history, selling a total of 23,043 head for $2,252,500.21. This picture shows stockmen and buyers at an auction at Maitland.

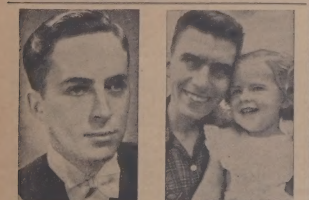

AGRICULTURAL CONFERENCE—E. Morris Dodd, Director-General of the Food and Agriculture Organization, United Nations visited Ottawa during the Dominion-Provincial Agricultural Conference, addressed a session of the Conference and, later, a dinner given by the Agricultural Institute of Canada. Shown with him in the Conference room in Pringle Floor, Agricultural Attache with the United States Embassy in Ottawa.

RUSH DRUG TO SAVE GIRL—Barbara Veltch, four, of Richermond, Ont., contracted virus pneumonia, infantile meningitis and finally her appendix ruptured, bringing her close to the point of death. Doctors agreed that only ampicillin, a new drug not available in Canada, could save her. He arranged for some of the drug to be smuggled into country from U.S. From there on, a 12-cents taxi ride from the border brought her supply and a plane ride in the poorest of flying conditions brought a second supply to Barbra. The child is happy to live, doctors expect. She is seen above with her brother, Jimmy.—S.N.S. photo.

HAS RARE DISEASE—Earl Baird, Guelph, is recovering from a fractured collar bone, result of a tumble in front of his home. It was his 10th major bone fracture, although he is only eight years old. A rare disease causes his bones to snap like chalk. Doctors say that by the time Earl reaches his twenties, his bones may be strong enough for him to lead a normal life. But for now, a hockey outfit at Christmas would be a welcome gift.—S.N.S. photo.

GET SAME RIDE AS WITNESSES—Two Toronto newspapermen, Charles Conroy, above left, and Paul Smith, right with daughter, were driven out of Atlanta, Ga., where recent demonstrations against Jewish Witnesses occurred. They got the same ride that two Ontario girls, Olive Sandell and Winifred Parnes, took to Winnipeg, got several days ago. One left the town hall at Atlanta, he said, and were pursued down the street. They got into taxi which drove them out of town, and were followed by their pursuers in cars.—S.N.S. photo.

HAS 70TH BIRTHDAY—Messages of congratulation poured into Lester Wilson at Ottawa recently when 70. Hon. William Lyon Mackenzie King celebrated his 70th birthday. He recently retired after 30 years as Liberal leader and 22 years as prime minister.—S.N.S. photo.

UNEMPLOYMENT GROWS DAILY AT ONTARIO LAKEHEAD, and payrolls have been cut as much as 75 per cent. In the past two years three Lumber workers in the action blame one-purpose in limits allotted to pulp and paper companies. Grocery business of Mrs. Mathews Grant, 31, died with Greyhound, six months, has been halted by drop in Lakehead employment. Lumbermen complain that while spruce growth has been attracted for pulp operations, stands of cedar, jackpine, birch and Norway white pine have been left to rot in the cuttings. Being cut bare cuttings now is fact for 42 years, one has to work with three men cutting poplar from own land for sale to pulp companies. Each acre about 110 weeks.—S.N.S. photo.
